11.11.19

Literacy	This week in literacy we will be writing remembrance poetry.
Maths	This week in Maths we will be starting to investigate multiplying decimal numbers by 10,100, 1000. We will also investigate factor pairs, prime and composite numbers and square and cubed numbers.
P.E.	Swimming is on Tuesday; please make sure you have to the correct kit, including swimming caps.
Spellings	Spellings have been given out this week. Please can you make sure that your child also understands the word they are spelling and can put it into a sentence on Monday mornings, as they will have to write this sentence down. If you have any questions about Spellings please come and see me after school.
Other Information	Guitar lessons will continue this Wednesday, please ensure you have your guitar in school.  Any Problems please come and see me.

Any questions please see me after school
