Creative Curriculum Focus

Our new topic is called Gallery rebels.

Each week we are going to focus on a different art movement. This week in our modern art topic I want to research and find out about Damien Hurst. He is famous for creating a certain piece of art which you can have a go at home. (Details to follow)

If you do have a go at home send me your pictures on twitter or purple mash.

If you can, create your own art movement sketch book so all of your art work over the next 6 weeks is together.
